Department of Workforce Services

Business Services

Business Services employees are committed to connecting business with solutions. Whether you are looking for employees, want to improve your workplace or face the possibility of a layoff, we can help.

Recruiting Solutions

If you are recruiting one or one-hundred employees, we can help with:

- Posting current job openings
- Resume or application collection
- Affirmative Action recruitment assistance
- Use of our offices for interviewing and training
- Mass recruitment assistance or specialized job fairs

Information Solutions

Our professional Business Consultants and Economists can provide you with information on:

- Occupational wages to ensure your company stays competitive
- Industry-specific labor market information

- On-line economic publications and services

Rightsizing Solutions

If you're facing a possible layoff, call our team first so we can provide:

- Professional consultation on possible alternatives to save your company time and money
- Economic information which may help deter a layoff
- Workshops for affected workers should a layoff be the only answer

Brokering Solutions

Our Business Consultants can be your resource for:

- Upcoming seminars and workshops on employment-law and other issues
- Networking linkage to local business groups, Employer Committees and Chambers
- Linking to educational partners responsible for preparing students for your job
- Creative solutions to business challenges
