

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Is there an income limit to be eligible for HCTC Bridge Program?

A: There is no income eligibility requirement.

Q: I am not eligible for Medicare, but my spouse is. Does that make us ineligible for HCTC Bridge Program?

A: Not completely. As long as you meet the eligibility requirements, you are able to benefit from HCTC. Your premium is eligible, however your spouse's premium would not be and you would be required to pay his or her portion of the health insurance bill.

Q: Why do I have to apply for both the State and the Federal HCTC Programs? Can't I just apply for one or the other?

A: If you apply for HCTC Bridge Program, you must apply for the Federal. The Federal Program can take a while to finalize your enrollment. Our program is designed to provide you with the Advance Payment for 1 to 3 months, while your application is being processed with the Federal program. If you apply for the Federal program, you do not have to apply for our program, however you would not benefit from the 80% Advance Payment while you wait for the Federal program to complete your registration.

Q: What if I don't want to go through the application process?

A: If you do not want to apply for Advance Payments, you can claim the Health Coverage Tax Credit on your year-end taxes. Simply fill out the Form 8885 and include it with your tax return. Questions about this process may be directed to the Federal HCTC Program.

Q: What documentation is required with my HCTC Bridge application? Also, should I send in the original documents that you require?

A: You will receive a checklist with your application that lists all required documents. Copies are preferred.

- COBRA Continuation coverage where the employer/former employer pays less than 50% of the cost of coverage. (This includes your or your spouse's COBRA coverage.)
- Your spouse's coverage provided that his or her employer pays less than 50% of the premium on a pre-tax basis.
- Individual coverage purchased 30 days prior to separation from the employment that made you TRA, ATAA and/or PBGC eligible.

HCTC Bridge Program will pay 80% of your eligible health plan premium. You pay 20% of your eligible premium in addition to any non-eligible costs for your health care. Your eligible health plan premium includes your basic health coverage. "Extras" such as vision, dental, or other charges are not covered by the HCTC and will be included in the total that you are responsible for paying. In addition, if you have COBRA coverage, if you are charged an administrative fee by the COBRA administrator it will not be covered by the HCTC Bridge Program.

Application Steps for HCTC Bridge Program
