

Intergenerational Advisory Committee

Wednesday, October 30, 2019

10:00 – 12:00 pm

DWS- Olene Walker Building
140 East 300 South, SLC UT 84111
Conference Room 101N

Meeting Minutes

- Committee: Bishop David Burton, Laney Benedict, Carolyn Reynolds for Dr. Roy Neal Davis, Councilwoman Aimee Winder Newton, Reverend Steve Klemz, Bill Crim, Dr. Benjamin Gibbs, Staff Support: Casey Cameron, Greg Paras, Tracy Gruber, Montana Meyers
Attendees: Patty Norman, Ed Derienger,
Excused: Judge D. Scott Davis, William Duncan, Jennifer Godfrey

Agenda Item	Discussion	Recommendations/Action
Welcome, Approval of Minutes, and Opening Business	Bishop Burton welcomed the group.	Seeing no objections from the board regarding the two sets of prior meeting minutes, Bishop Burton approved both the 4/16/2019 IGP Advisory minutes & the 8/13/2019 Commission & Committee meeting minutes.
Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce: Utah Community Builders	i. Max Backlund presented on behalf of Utah Community Builders, an initiative of the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce. He explained their focus is on 4 areas: social mobility, behavioral health in the work place, child care and parental leave, and immigration. Max Backland referred to the UCB Overview slideshow to provide a summary of the Utah Community Builders.	Understanding Mental Health in the Workplace. Mr. Backland indicated the Source: https://gardner.utah.edu/wp-content/uploads/MentalHealthReportAug2019.pdf
Resilient Utah Update	i. Tracy Gruber provided an update from the August 13, 2019 meeting on the planning by Resilient Utah to establish a center for trauma-informed care and practice in Utah. The next steps in the planning are to conduct a meeting of leaders of the subcommittee.	Ms. Gruber stated if anyone wants to be involved to send her their contact details directly tgruber@utah.gov
County Efforts	i. Ms. Gruber provided an update on the counties that are implementing plans to reduce intergenerational poverty and shared the County Progress Report . Ms. Gruber updated the members of the extension on the Intergenerational Poverty pilot program Economic Development & Workforce Services Interim Committee, which proposes to	Economic Development and Workforce Services Interim Committee Meeting hearing available online:

	change the sunset date on the program to 2024. This will allow to expend money that was all one time until it is expended. The committee bill will need to be adopted during the 2020 General Session.	https://le.utah.gov/MtgMinutes/publicMeetingMinutes.jsp?Com=INTEDW&meetingId=16561
2019 Annual Report	i. Ms. Gruber provided an overview of the progress made on the Intergenerational Poverty Initiative as reported in the 2019 Annual Report and referred to the 2019 Fact Sheet .	Learn about intergenerational poverty, Commission activities, annual report and the Five- and 10-Year Plan: https://jobs.utah.gov/edo/intergenerational/igp19.pdf https://www.facebook.com/intergenerationalpoverty/
2020 Priorities	i. Advisory Committee discussed three priorities for the Intergenerational Poverty Initiative for 2020: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Center for Trauma Informed Care & Practice was discussed previously in this meeting; 2. Classroom on Wheels mobile preschool classroom, a partnership with DWS, Office of Child Care and the Utah Department of Heritage & Arts; and 3. Identify three additional counties to begin developing plans to reduce intergenerational poverty. Member Crim discussed the investments in the UPSTART program. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Ms. Gruber indicated mailings are sent to IGP and TANF families annually on behalf of UPSTART, at the request of the Legislature. Ed Derienger, a member of the public discussed child care centers working with the UPSTART program as well. 	Advisory Committee endorsed these three priorities for 2020. Questions about priorities, contact Tracy Gruber tgruber@utah.gov
Public Comment	i. Bishop Burton indicated Next Meeting January 2020. Carolyn Reynolds indicated she will be attending Jan 2020 meeting.
Adjournment		Bishop Burton called for a motion to adjourn. Aimee Winder Newton motioned to adjourn. Carolynn Reynolds seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously. Meeting adjourned.