Cities throughout the state are considering a variety of measures to address this attainability challenge such as reviewing housing and zoning policies, providing funding for housing and advocating for systematic changes. Join this panel of experts as they discuss the barriers to and need for attainable housing for working and low-income households and what they are doing to address Utah's housing attainability crisis.	https://zoom.us/j/91283661977?pwd=SG1BUWtaMm0zWkU0Z3VnbEp-TQ2hSZz09                      Phone: 346-248-7799                      Webinar ID: 912 8366 1977

Track	Workshops	Presenters	Workshop Description	Zoom Link
Direct Service Providers	Caring for Yourself and Others: Establishing Boundaries and Dealing With Secondary Trauma	James Jetton	"I feel like I'm doing more than I can with less than I need." Emergency shelters, food pantries and domestic violence survivor services across the state of Utah have reported increased need in their communities since the beginning of the COVID-19 Pandemic. In addition, service providers find themselves adapting to rapidly changing work environments. These factors can lead to service providers paying a higher emotional toll at work. In this presentation we will discuss the impacts of secondary trauma in unprecedented times. The goal is to find ways to become more emotionally resilient. If service providers are to keep the pace with the needs of people facing hunger and homelessness, their emotional and psychological well-being must be protected. In order to effectively help others, we must be able to help ourselves.	https://zoom.us/j/98787360996?pwd=dVVaT0hza241ajR5YTZVMHIInkF0UT09            Phone: 253-215-8782            Webinar ID: 987 8736 0996            VMHIInkF0UT09

Why Building Equity Into Your Program is Important

Track	Workshops	Presenters	Workshop Description	Zoom Link
Direct Service Providers	Historically Marginalized Populations: Intentional Considerations as Service Providers	Elizabeth Oliver	We envision a world where housing and services opportunities are not impacted by race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity and other personal characteristics, but unfortunately we are not there yet. Let's challenge ourselves to face the reality that underrepresented populations in the United States make up a disproportionate share of the homeless population. With this knowledge, what can we as service providers do to intentionally move the needle in reducing inequities and bias in our daily practices with the people we serve? In this session, we will review systemic inequities of homelessness and housing, explore our biases and consider the potential impacts of how we engage with people in our community.	https://zoom.us/j/96795080234?pwd=SnpOQi9kdIpWRTNGMko4MG-FtUVpvZz09 Phone: 346-248-7799 Webinar ID: 967 9508 0234

What does the data tell us about how we are doing, who we are missing, and what do we need to do from a system level perspective? How do we have the right conversations with the right stakeholders? How do we include client voice to improve services? We will discuss these issues and more as we come up with strategies moving forward.	https://zoom.us/j/99247865820?pwd=Qkc4MndFb3hyeDUzeFIH-VHc2NkxyQT09 Phone: 253-215-8782 Webinar ID: 992 4786 5820
