

ADULT EXPANSION MEDICAID Frequently Asked Questions

1. When can I apply for Adult Expansion Medicaid?

Anyone can apply for Medicaid anytime. However, Adult Expansion Medicaid coverage begins April 1, 2019.

2. What is the best way to apply?

The best way to apply is online at jobs.utah.gov/mycase.

You may also apply in person, by mail or by fax. Visit medicaid.utah.gov/apply-medicaid for more information about how to apply for medical benefits.

3. If I currently have Primary Care Network (PCN), or another Medicaid program, do I need to apply for Adult Expansion Medicaid?

No. Anyone who is currently on PCN coverage will have their benefits converted to Adult Expansion Medicaid by April 1, 2019. There is no need to submit a new application, unless you do not have any coverage at the moment.

4. Can I qualify for Adult Expansion Medicaid if I have other insurance coverage? Do I have to cancel my other insurance to receive this program?

You are allowed to have other insurance and still be eligible for the Adult Expansion Medicaid program. You are not required to cancel your current insurance to qualify for Adult Expansion Medicaid, but you must report your coverage to Workforce Services if you have it. If you are enrolled in a Marketplace plan, and you receive Advance Premium Tax Credits, contact the Marketplace if you become eligible for Medicaid. You cannot receive Medicaid and tax credits at the same time. If you do, you may have to repay the tax credits.

5. How soon should I expect to hear from Workforce Services after applying?

Applications can take up to 30 days for a decision to be made. Workforce Services will send a notice if additional verifications are needed to complete the application process. You can check the status of your application on myCase or by calling 1-866-435-7414 (select option 1). You will receive a notice of decision once your case is processed.

6. Where can I go to learn more about the requirements of the Adult Expansion Medicaid program?

You can go to medicaid.utah.gov/expansion to learn more about the Adult Expansion Medicaid program, as well as other Medicaid programs.
