Seven-Year Limit for Certain Noncitizens Receiving Supplemental Security Income

Some refugees and other noncitizens can get SSI for up to seven years. If your SSI payments are limited to seven years because of your particular noncitizen status, we will send you a letter telling you when your seven-year period ends. We will send you another letter explaining your rights to appeal before we stop your payments. You may receive SSI for a maximum of seven years from the date DHS granted you a status in one of the following categories, provided the status was granted within seven years of filing for SSI:

- Refugee
- Asylee
- Person whose deportation or removal is being withheld
- "Cuban and Haitian entrant" under the Refugee Education Assistance Act
- "Amerasian immigrant"
- Special immigrant visa
