

State of Utah Department of Workforce Services
REQUEST FOR COMPANY LISTING ON THE UTAH INTERPRETER PROGRAM AGENCY LIST

As a public service, DSDHH publishes a list of interpreting agencies that employ interpreters who are certified or recognized by the Utah Interpreter Program (UIP). Listing agency contact information is not an endorsement or recommendation of that agency either by the UIP or the State of Utah. Listings must be requested annually by January 31. If a request is not received by January 31, the listing will be removed.

Please fill out the information below, review the agreement, sign, and return to UIP@utah.gov.

All agencies listed agree to ensure that interpreters providing interpreting services in Utah comply with Utah law 35A-13 Part 6. This law requires all interpreters providing interpreting services in the State of Utah be certified or recognized by the UIP. This includes interpreters located within the State of Utah regardless of the location of the consumer and interpreters who may live in other states while providing remote interpreting services to consumers within the state of Utah.

By signing, you represent the agency listed above in these matters, and assert that all interpreters providing interpreting services in Utah for your company, whether it be through employment or contract, are certified or recognized by the UIP.
